

English as a Second Language Teachers

Opportunities

English as a Second Language teachers are needed to teach English to those living in the neighborhoods surrounding Taylor Community Center in McAllen, Texas. McAllen is a growing city as people move out of Mexico and into the United States. There is a great need and desire for ESL classes in this area. ESL teachers will have the opportunity to reach out to Mexicans and show them the love of Jesus while teaching them English.

Qualifications

It is preferred that applicants have a degree in Teaching English as a Second Language. Consideration will be given to applicants who do not have a degree but do have ESL experience.

Language Requirements

English is required, but Spanish will be helpful as many children and families in the area speak only Spanish. Spanish language school is required for full-time missionaries.
