Investing in the lives of young people in Honduras

- We use playing games with youth as a way to develop critical thinking skills, humility, and confidence. Most importantly, we're investing in relationships, giving us the opportunity to speak truth into young lives.
- God has given us a vision to partner with local churches in Honduras to start game room and recreation center ministries in their neighborhoods.
- We want to empower and encourage churches to pursue discipleship through relationship.

Why We Serve

We believe our heavenly Father created us to be in relationship with Him and others. Our ministry focuses on building God-honoring relationships with young people so that we can motivate, encourage, inspire, disciple, and strengthen them in their walks with the Lord.

Our desire to have more children caused chaos, hurt, and brokenness in our family. But God used our struggle to bring us to Honduras, where He has answered our prayers by allowing us to love hundreds of children over the years. In the process, we found purpose and healing through the ministry He's given us.

When our son, Nick, was growing up, our family developed a mealtime tradition of playing games. While we were enjoying our tacos or savoring our spaghetti, we were also throwing Yahtzee dice and battling for Risk territory. Huddled around a simple Scrabble board, we could talk about our day, laugh together, and conquer the toughest puzzles. Games became a way for our family to connect.

When we had the opportunity to organize a game room at Escuela El Sembrador, a school for impoverished youth in Honduras, we thought it would be a way to pass the time after class. But when we began to see the impact the game room had on the students, we knew God had been preparing our family for this incredible ministry long before we set foot on Honduran soil. We have seen God work in incredible ways through the simple act of play.

Ways to Partner

Pray: Pray that we will always be open, caring, and heartfelt in our desires to form relationships with young people and that they will see Jesus through our interactions with them and each other. Pray for strong, God-honoring partnerships with local churches in Honduras and for local volunteers and workers with hearts to serve and connect with young people. Pray also for our language and cultural understanding and for opportunities to speak truth into the lives of young people.
