

Santa Cruz Christian Learning Center Teachers

Opportunities

Teachers are needed to teach a variety of subjects and grades at Santa Cruz Christian Learning Center. SCCLC is a private, coeducational day school ministering to more than 230 students in pre-kindergarten through 12th grade. The school seeks to graduate students who are spiritually and academically prepared to impact the world for Christ. In addition to one-on-one interaction with students in the classroom, teachers minister through chapels, Bible studies, youth group, camps, and retreats. They also have a unique opportunity to minister to non-Christian students and their families.

Qualifications

It is preferred that applicants have a college degree in education and a current state teaching certificate and/or an Association of Christian Schools International certification. Teaching experience is not required but it is preferred.

Language Requirements

Applicants do not need to speak Spanish, but it is helpful when communicating with students and parents.

Location

Santa Cruz, Bolivia

Length of Service

Ministry Description

Santa Cruz Christian Learning Center was founded in 1977 to provide a quality education in English and with a Christian orientation primarily for missionary children. The student body has changed from having a majority of MKs to now being 70 percent Bolivian. This provides an increased opportunity for outreach. Today, SCCLC serves Bolivia and the nations by providing a comprehensive, multilingual Christian education that meets and exceeds national and international academic standards and prepares students spiritually, academically, and socially to transform their world.
