THE PROVISION OF GOD

God sees us. No prayer goes unheard, no need unseen. When God provides, sometimes He does so in the most unexpected of ways. Our missionaries have witnessed God’s provision time and time again for those in difficult circumstances firsthand. The stories of God showing up are too many to count, and sometimes we don’t even hear about it; however, when we do see the fruit of prayers being answered, we celebrate and share the stories of how God has moved. It’s through these stories that people are encouraged to seek after God’s will and join the movement of advancing His kingdom on earth—helping to multiply the effect.

As we reflect on the 2018–2019 fiscal year, we celebrate God’s answers to prayer. One example of His provision comes in Gabriela’s story. Gabriela grew up in a Honduran dump, searching for books and other reading materials she could study. At eleven years old, she was two years away from becoming a prostitute to help support her family, like her sister before her. A donor, heartbroken at Gabriela’s reality, offered funds to help change the trajectory of her life and others in similar situations. That gift spurred others to join in giving towards the cause; now more children are able to attend Brazos de Jesús, a school near the landfill that can open doors to a better future for them.

We also saw God’s hand at work with Estela, a widow with five children who lived in a dilapidated building in Paraguay that left her family at the mercy of the elements. A short-term team was slated to build a different structure in the area, but when a local missionary was approached by a group of ladies who felt God laying Estela’s need on their heart, the team ended up shifting their focus. Instead of following their original plan, they ended up building a new home for Estela, one that was sturdier and more weather-proof. The funds for this project were raised in record time, a testament to God’s provision!

At times, circumstances may seem too dark to ever see light. We encounter need after need and find it difficult to remain hopeful. In those moments, it is imperative that we pray for God’s provision. He is faithful to use those who are willing. Just as He provided for Gabriela and Estela, so can He provide in many situations that seem hopeless at first. At WGM, we love to celebrate the ways God’s life-changing power is at work around the world so that, in sharing these stories, His name might be glorified.
