Biography

David grew up on the mission field in Honduras and was saved and sanctified in high school. Debbie also grew up as a missionary kid in Burundi, Africa. She was saved during junior high and sanctified in high school. Having both grown up in Christian homes, we desire to see others come to know the Lord. Since 1991, we have served in various roles on three different WGM fields—Texas/Mexico Border Ministries, Honduras, and El Salvador. We currently have the privilege of serving in the Americas Region with WGM.

As part of the WGM Americas regional leadership team, we focus on transformation. We believe that a heart change through the gospel should be evident in every aspect of one's life. Our current position allows us to encourage our missionary teams in the USA, Mexico, Honduras, Bolivia, Peru, Argentina, and Paraguay.

Our regional strategic focus is partnering with local churches in ministries that maximize the teaching of a biblical worldview, understanding that God made us in His image and with a purpose. Additionally, we promote discipleship, mentoring, and leadership development. We love joining our co-workers in the region in dreaming of innovative ways to disciple the nations in which they work.

We are based in Dallas, near our daughter, Kaitlin, and our son Taylor and his wife, Kami. Our son Blake and his wife, Jessica, are parents to our three grandchildren who live far, far away in Indiana. The nearby DFW airport provides easy access to all countries we serve in the Americas Region as well as our grandchildren.
