Biography

When I was 7 years old, I gave my heart and life to Christ during Vacation Bible School. Later, I heard a message on holiness and surrendered my life completely to Christ. God called me to the mission field when I was about 19 years old. I continue to surrender my life to Christ as I walk with Him.

I ministered at Southwest Indian School in Peoria, Arizona, from 1996 to 1998 through the Volunteers In Action program. Later, as a career missionary, I served on the Tohono O'odham Reservation on the American Indian Field. In 2011, I transferred to McAllen, Texas, where I served through children's and women's ministries at Taylor Community Center.

I continue to serve with Texas/Mexico Border Ministries and now minister as a counselor at a local church, lead a home Bible study, and direct a program called H2O—Hope, Healing, and Overcoming.
