Biography

I was born in Santa Cruz, Bolivia, to WGM missionary parents, John and Mabel Kunkle. I grew up in Bolivia until 1964, when my parents returned to the United States. My father served as a missionary evangelist for WGM and was later elected as general superintendent for the Evangelical Methodist Church.

I returned to Bolivia as a missionary physician in 1983 to work in outpatient clinics in rural areas. My ministry has always included involvement in the local church and district. In 2000, with Pastor Eliseo Orihuela and his wife, Doli, I had the privilege of helping to plant a new church in the village of Santa Maria. I continue to minister in this church with Pastor Eliseo and Doli and provide medical care for the people in the village.
