Biography

Alex and Diana, along with their children, Josué and Sofia, are from Bogotá, Colombia. Having been raised to know Christ from an early age, they have served in their local church for the last sixteen years working with children and youth, as well as in administration. More recently, their passion for organizing events and conferences on discipleship have given them an international impact. They feel called to promote a biblical worldview among local church members and throughout the Spanish-speaking world.

Both Alex and Diana believe that the way to bring transformation to individuals, families, communities, and nations is to develop communication strategies that effectively reach people with the Gospel in practical ways.
