Biography

Brady: Business development and Financial training

Brady has a desire for people to gain a new perspective on poverty and helps guide them to a fulfilled life in Christ. God has been using Brady's knowledge and experience with business and finances to facilitate trainings with local universities, NGOs, and Churches. He has developed trainings, taught, and helped write a book on how to manage the resources God has given us. He started a donut business to help employ university graduates and teaches ethical business practices and skill building. The donut business is thriving and growing within Kampala! Brady has also trained two Ugandans to continue with his financial trainings while he is in America.

Alicia: Refugee Trauma Rehabilitation Trainer and Staff Care

Alicia has a passion to see refugees regain hope and restore healing. God opened a door for Alicia to partner with a local organization called Tutapona, which provides trauma rehabilitation to the over 1.5 million refugees who have found refuge in Uganda. With her experience as a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, she provides clinical training, supervision, and staff care to the local facilitators, who in turn work with the refugees.

University Discipleship:

We desire to see lives transformed through a restorative relationship with Jesus. We love working with University students from Kampala International University and lead weekly discipleship groups. It's amazing to see how God is transforming these student's lives, and we love knowing that this will have a huge impact in countries throughout Africa.

Gabe: Play and Music ministries

Gabe has a love for playing, exploring, and music. He loves making new friends in Uganda, and God has used him to open conversations and new relationships. His favorite things about Uganda are watching after the local cows and goats who live across the street and learning new songs in his local music class.
