Biography

When we began serving in McAllen, Texas (2010), we did not realize that worldwide impact was possible by reaching the people in our immediate community. McAllen is a transient city that immigrants pass through regularly. We often have a short window of time to reach individuals and families with the Word of God before they move on. We are intentional in making the most of every opportunity, through a variety of ministries, to share the hope they can have in Jesus and discipling them during the time they are in our lives. We strive to send them off changed and equipped to share the hope and love of Christ wherever God is taking them.
