Biography

Justin: Since coming to faith at the age of 18, I have been overwhelmed at how God has done what humanity cannot do—change the heart. In my late 20s, God began a call on my life to be set apart for His service in missions. Since that time, I have grown deeper in intimacy with Him. As He shapes and chisels my life, I am compelled to respond like Isaiah responds in Isaiah 6:8: “Here I am; send me!” My greatest delight is in service to our King. In 2012, Debby and I sensed a call to love and serve in Uganda. I delight to respond in obedience to Him, and our journey began in August 2013.

Debby: I grew up in a Christian home with wonderful parents and one younger brother. During my freshman year of college at Taylor University (Indiana), I had more freedom than I'd ever had before. It was now my choice to attend church or sleep in. I had to decide how committed I was going to be to Christ. I chose to sell out to Him. It was no longer my parent's faith but my faith. From there, Christ has taken my life where I never thought it would go. I never planned on being a teacher, but that's where God wanted me. I loved teaching for six years before we had our first child and I became a stay-at-home mom. Now, God is calling us to Uganda, and I'm excited to teach again. Life is never boring when God's in control.
