

Dan and Eunice Coffman

ID: 02830 Country: Honduras

Biography

From ordinary farmers in Iowa to extraordinary missionaries in Honduras, Don and Eunice Coffman followed the Lord into an exciting adventure of service.

Don's primary roles at Escuela El Sembrador were directing the cattle department and serving as the general director of the school. He also taught classes in the Bible institute and Sunday School and did village evangelism.

Eunice taught in the Bible institute, Sunday School, and spiritual growth classes; was the assistant treasurer and hostess for guests; worked in the school's store; assisted work teams; and did motherly duties, such as laundry, for the boys.

Don and Eunice continued to serve at El Sembrador until their retirement on October 31, 2003, after 32 years of service.

Read more about Don and Eunice's story here.