Biography

"But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them?" Romans 10:14 (NLT)

I currently serve as the director of Mobilization here at World Gospel Mission. My passion and desire is to share with others how they can be a part of the bigger story that God is writing around the world. Everyone has a unique role to play in that story, and I love helping people discover that.

My story with WGM started when I was an undergraduate student pursuing a degree in cross-cultural ministry. I spent seven months in Santa Cruz, Bolivia, as volunteer, teaching English as a second language and learning from some amazing missionaries who served with WGM. It was a joy and challenge to serve during this short time, but it continued to affirm my involvement in what God is doing around the world.

Upon returning from Bolivia, I came on staff at WGM. I have served in several different roles, all within the area of missions mobilization. I currently lead an amazing team of individuals who are also passionate about sharing how people can use their unique set of gifts and skills to introduce Jesus to others.
